

One-Day Sangoshthi on “Promotion of Mahseer Eco-tourism in Kumaon Region”

ICAR-Directorate of Coldwater Fisheries Research, Bhimtal participated in the one-day sangoshthi on "Promotion of Mahseer Eco-tourism in Kumaon Region" on 07.01.2018 at ICAR-DCFR, Bhimtal for promotion and development of eco-tourism in the region considering the local issues of the people and their participation. Shri. Ram Singh Keda, Member of Legislative Assembly, Bhimtal and Shri. Ramesh Bhatt, Media Advisor, Hon'ble Chief Minister, Uttarakhand grace the occasion and highlighted the importance of people participation in the restoration of Kumaon lakes for the promotion and development of mahseer based eco-tourism and livelihood security. Other dignitaries Shri. Devendra Kumar Chaudhary, District Magistrate, Nainital; Shri. Janmjay Khanduri, SSP, Nainital; Shri. Prakash Chandra, Chief Development Officer, Nainital; Shri. Rajesh Negi, President, Nagar Panchayat, Bhimtal and Geeta Bisht, Block Pramukh, Bhimtal along with more than 150 public representatives participated and deliberated in this Sangoshthi. Dr. Debajit Sarma, Director (Acting), ICAR-DCFR, Bhimtal explained the role of DCFR in rehabilitation of golden mahseer "The Pride of Uttarakhand" and possibilities to develop mahseer based eco-tourism in the region benefiting the local people in their economy.

